Nominations for State officers were: President: Terri Reed, Vice-President: Linda Smith, Recording Secretary: Lynn Anderson, Treasurer: Angie Harl and Judy Harris, Historian: Martha Lamey. Door prizes were given out and closing ritual was said by all. We left feeling the Love and Peace.

Convention 2015: "Here Comes the Beta", Indianapolis, Indiana, Host: Alpha Rho Master, Anderson. Friday night was the Bachelorette Party. We had snacks and games. We had to find a sister that had something that pertained to her wedding such as: one sister honeymooned at the Playboy Club, some got married on a rainy day, and someone lost her wedding ring. It was a fun game. We played "what was in the purse game?" Without looking inside, everyone had a chance to feel what was inside the purse and write it down. We also played a dress up game where one sister dressed another sister in whatever attire as a bridal party member including mother of the bride, the best man, and attendant. It was a fun time. Saturday morning we went to the "Gift Registry," Ways and Means. We proceeded to "The Vows", the business meeting. We had 43 delegates, 50 non-delegates, 12 guests, 2 men for a total of 107. Saturday evening the "Reception" was held. We installed the new officers, President: Terri Reed, Vice-President: Linda Smith, Recording Secretary: Lynn Anderson, Treasurer: Judy Harris, Historian: Martha Lamey, Corresponding Secretary: Janet Howard, Parliamentarian: Bea Smith, and Advisor Yvonne Nace.

The State Woman of the Year candidates were introduced. The State Woman of the Year Runner-up was Margie Zellers, Xi Alpha Mu, Terre Haute. The State Woman of the Year is Marguerite DeVore, Alpha Chi Master, Indianapolis.

The colors for the weekend were black, white, and pink. Sunday was the "Celebration Breakfast" with our new Officers and Woman of the Year at the head table. Door Prizes were given out and closing ritual was said by all. The board members and the host chapter brought in pictures and/or wedding dresses from their wedding. They were displayed for all to see. It was a wonderful weekend. We all left for our honeymoon, (HOME)

State Council Day: March 3, 2019: "Beta Baby Shower" hosted by Linda Smith and sisters from Terre Haute Xi Alpha Mu Chapter to benefit our State Project, Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence was a great success. We enjoyed a new venue this year, the Embassy Conference Center on Perry Road in Plainfield for our Ways & Means and Business meeting. We were asked to bring baby gifts in sizes birth to 3T to benefit the young children of mothers who are victims of domestic violence. Some of the gift items were used as the table decorations and then all of the gifts were taken to the ICADV office for distribution. There were 146 sisters in attendance. Laura Berry of ICADV was our speaker before the business meeting. Of course, there was some SNOW!

State Fun Day: June 22 and State Day June 23: "A Day at the Theatre" was the theme for State Fun Day hosted by Janet Howard, Terri Hale and Jody Grantham from Eta Rho Chapter, Fort Wayne. The comedy play "Rumors" was enjoyed by 91 sisters at the Arena Dinner Theatre and featured our own Janet Howard. Lots of smiles and laughs filled the room. Everyone had a great afternoon. "Cast Party" was the theme for State Day hosted by the same Beta Sisters at the Courtyard by Marriott. After our luncheon, Janet Howard introduced our guest speaker Kerry Hyatt Bennett, Legal Counsel for the Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence (ICADV). Due to the absence of President Judy Harris (hospital), Vice President Martha Lamey conducted the business meeting. There were 96 sisters in attendance. The nominees for the state officers for 2019-2020 were introduced.

State Convention: October 18, 19 & 20: "Once Upon a Time" hosted by Doris Moehlenkamp, Janet Neu and members of Xi Alpha Pi, Evansville was the theme for convention at the Holiday Inn Airport. On Friday evening the sisters enjoyed a "Sleeping Beauty" pajama party with snacks, games and a slipper contest. The Past Presidents enjoyed a time together and then joined with the Sleeping Beauty party. On Saturday after breakfast there was registration, shopping at "Aladdin's Magic Carpet Market" and delegates voting for the new state officers. Then it was "Hi ho, Hi ho, it's off to lunch we go". Laura Berry Berman of the Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence (ICADV) was our speaker after lunch. The business meeting followed with 106 sisters in attendance. Saturday evening included dinner at "Cinderella's Ball". The after-dinner festivities included presenting Judy Harris with her President's pin and her Memory book. Linda Smith of Xi Alpha Mu Terre Haute was selected as the 2019 Woman of the Year and Laura DeGroot of Indianapolis was named the runner-up. The Officers for the year 2019-2020 were installed. They are President: Martha Lamey; Vice President: Zelda Flye; Secretary: Barbara Coveleskie; Treasurer: Penny Elkins; Historian: Sharon Russell; Parliamentarian: Patti Mitchum and Advisor: Judy Harris. The evening was completed with everyone enjoying dancing and listening to music by DJ John Gossett. There was a worship service on Sunday morning before brunch and a short business meeting followed. The Past Presidents presented the Closing Ritual followed by the Mizpah. "Happily Ever After" truly did come to an end.

The Woman of the Year and State Officer's Reception was held in Speedway, Indiana at Courtyard by Marriott Speedway on November 3, 2019.

State Fun Day: June 26, 2021 "COUNTY FAIR WITH GOLDEN FLAIR - MEET US AT THE MIDWAY" was cancelled this year due to concerns about COVID- 19.

State Day: June 27, 2021 "COUNTY FAIR WITH GOLDEN FLAIR – HALL OF CHAMPIONS" hosted by Chairman Theresa Stites of Xi Iota, Indianapolis, IN and friends. Held in Fishers, IN at the Delaware Township Community Center. We were asked to bring items such as canned fruit, boxed dinners, hearty soups, etc. to help the Community Center. In addition, we were asked to bring household goods for ICADV. There were 103 in attendance which included 47 delegates, 55 non-delegates, and 1 guest. The guest speaker for the day was Kerry Hyatt-Bennett, Chief Legal Counsel for ICADV (Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence). What a fun day at the "COUNTY FAIR". Starting at the entrance to the "Hall of Champions", we began with introductions, then onto the fabulous, boxed lunch of sandwiches, soup, fresh fruit, and a cookie for dessert. Moving down the hall to our very informative (and short) business meeting, we then were entertained by skits from some of the upcoming State Events committees. Rounding out our day we congratulated our winners from the Ways & Means booths.

State Convention: October 15, 16 & 17, 2021 "MARDI GRAS BOUND" hosted by Beta Sisters, Co-Chairs Bea Smith & Peggy Wood. Held in West Lafayette, IN at the Four Points by Sheraton. Friday evening started with us boogieing to the sounds of Wendell Ferguson (our favorite DJ) and a hilariously funny dance skit by the Convention Committee. Saturday had us shopping at Fat Tuesday Ways & Means. Next up was lunch and business meeting. Lunch consisted of a nice main dish salad with a cup of soup. There were 86 in attendance which included 42 delegates, 38 non-delegates, 3 guests and 3 men. The guest speaker was Associate Director, Jessica Jacobs from Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence (ICADV). We started the evening's events with a cocktail hour. Our current State Officers came dancing in to "The Saints Come Marching In". Everyone enjoyed a delicious dinner. The highlights of the evening's events began with the presentation of the President's memory book, the announcement of the new Woman of the Year and Runner-Up, and the installation of the new State Officers. The 2021 – 2022 Officers are: President Barbara Coveleskie; Vice President Penny Elkins; Secretary Doris Moehlenkamp; Treasurer Debbie Norris; Historian Laura Hopkins; and Advisor Zelda Flye. Our new Parliamentarian is Denise Laverty, who was unable to attend. Our State Woman of the Year is Linda Smith and the Runner-Up is Angie Harl. We finished out the evening with music and dancing. Sunday morning began with our nation's colors being presented by the Lafayette Fire Department Honor Guard, followed by Teressa Meredith singing "God Bless The USA". Convention Co-Chairwoman Bea Smith made several introductions and then we enjoyed a wonderful brunch buffet. A few announcements were made, and door prizes were handed out. Closing ritual was conducted by some of the Past State Presidents. We parted ways and all headed home from Mardi Gras! What a wonderful weekend full of fun, friendship, and sisterhood!

State Officers and Woman of the Year Reception: November 10, 2024. The reception was held in Terre Haute, IN at the United Methodist Temple Family Center. The food and dessert displays were beyond delightful. The officers met for the fall board meeting the day before and the supper and auction were held that evening at Logan's Rib-Eye.

2025 State Council Day: March 2, 2025. The theme was "Kentucky Derby – Run for the Roses", hosted by Xi Iota. The event was held at the Delaware Township Community Center in Fishers, IN with sisters attending bringing donations to support the center and the community. Sisters came all decked out in beautiful outfits and elaborate "Kentucky Derby" hats. The hat competition was a difficult decision, but we found a Win (1st Grace Howard), Place (2nd Jeanine McComb), and Show (3rd Mary Ann Clark)! We had Ways and Means, then a wonderful lunch with Laura Berry from Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence (ICADV) as our guest speaker. Our attendance was 122.

State Fun Day 2025: June 21, 2025. The theme was "Saturday in the Park", hosted by Torchbearer Theta in Washington, Indiana. The screened in pavilion at Eastside Park was a perfect venue to host this outside event. It was a very hot day, and the day was cut short because of the oppressive heat. But we still had a chance to play indoor games. Peggy started the games with a story game that gave you points depending on your answer. This was followed with euchre and bingo. Picnic food was catered by an Amish restaurant. The attendance was 76. After Fun Day the state officers met for a Board Meeting at the hotel.

State Day 2025: June 22, 2025. The theme was "Red, White, and Blue." It was held at the Knights of Columbus in Washington, Indiana. After registration, Ways and Means were held with many red, white, and blue decorated tables. The luncheon guest speaker was Colleen Yeakle from ICADV. Three additional guests from ICADV attended to meet our sorority members. After door prizes were awarded, the beautiful centerpieces (oval tin basins with red, white, and blue flowers and greenery) were given to those at the table whose birthdays were closest to the 4th of July. There were 85 sisters in attendance.

Indiana BSP State Convention 2025: October 3rd, 4th, and 5th 2025. The theme was "The Yellow Rose Cruise." It was at the Baymont Indy South, Indianapolis, Indiana. The Ship set sail from Oslo, Norway with a Bon Voyage Party, complete with snacks, fun, and games. We arrived in England Saturday morning for a Past President's Breakfast (London - The Crown Jewels) and ways and means (Liverpool – Penny Lane). We spent the luncheon and business meeting at the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France. Our speaker was Laura Berry from ICADV. Saturday night dined at the Captain's Table in Venice, Italy. The Historian presented the President with her Memory Book; the President was presented her Presidents Pin; the State Woman of the Year was crowned (Debbie Mahan as WOY and Sue Wilson as runner-up); and Installation of the 2025-2026 State Officers. The evening ended with a dance courtesy of Peggy's Playlist. On Sunday morning, we docked in Rome, Italy in time for worship service, scrapbook viewing, and brunch (Trevi Fountain). After door prizes and Closing Ritual, we disembarked to all points in Indiana. There were 94 in attendance for the event including 7 guests and 1 gentleman.
